HOME CROWDS ARE CORDIAL TO HYLAN

Judge Hylan received the most onhuslastic reception of his campaign in Arcadia Hall, Brooklyn, last night. A rowd of 1,500 armed with flags applauded his entrance and joined in dinging the national anthem, led by Miss Frances Nosky, who were a Columbia

The enthusiasm for the Tammany candidate also left about the same time.

for the reading of the Judge's address proved quite as deadly and sleep com-pelling in Brooklyn as it did in Manhattan. As the Judge had read his ad-dress twice before, at meetings in Eck-ford Hall and in Clark's Hall, he made few blunders and few omissions. But he continued to pronounce "million" as if it were spelled "miyon," and as his speech had much to do with costs of the city administration, the crowd found some interest in waiting to hear crop ome interest in waiting to hear crop up the peculiar pronunciation, linked in their minds with the days of youth.

After the Arcadia Hall meeting Judge Hylan spoke to a good audience at Public School $4. In all his meetings he opened his remarks by asking induigence of his hearers for reading his address. His explanation, as usual, Mitchel.
